

Friends of Union County Library Supports Library Staff

National Library Workers Day is Tuesday, April 6. On this day, Friends of Union County Library (FOUCL) recognizes the hard work and dedication of the library staff at Union County Public Library in Blairsville, Georgia.

The theme for 2021 National Library Week is “Welcome to Your Library,” an appropriate message as libraries across the country are beginning to fully reopen. Libraries provide free access to media, host programs and events, and strengthen communities through education and lifelong learning. Even through this last year of closures, curbside only, and curtailed or modified services, the Union County Public Library staff have connected people with books, material, and information.

If you are a member of FOUCL, or just a community member who would like to support the Children’s Summer Reading Program, we hope you have set aside a jar and are continuing to collect loose change or are using the monthly donation guide listed here: Jan: How many books/ebooks did you read/listen to this month? Donate $.50 for each. Feb: How often did you Zoom/Facetime this month? Donate $.50 for each connection. Mar: How many movies did you watch this month? Donate $.50 for each movie. Apr: How many times did you go to the library this month? Donate $1.00 for each visit. May: How many times did you shop online this month? Donate $.50 for each time. June: How many magazines did you read this month? Donate $.50 for each magazine. We ask you to send or drop off a check to FOUCL in July of 2021 for the amount you have set aside.

And next time you are in the library, be sure to let the staff know how much you appreciate them.
