

Join Our Group Discussion on Travel

FOUCL Members Tom & Jackie Volk in Alaska

Friends of Union County Library (FOUCL) and Union County Public Library are co-hosting a discussion about travel on Tuesday, June 7, beginning at 3:30 PM, in the Community Room at Union County Public Library. We are calling this event Everything You Need to Know: Ready, Set, Travel.

This will be an opportunity for well-traveled folks and those getting ready to travel to discuss all kinds of options. Contribute ideas and/or bring questions about travel locally, nationally, and internationally. Come prepared to tell us about your trips traveling solo, in a group, or with multi-generational family members. Talk about modes of transportation, pros and cons, by plane, train, coach, or automobile. Give and get ideas about RVing and renting cabins, VRBOs, Airbnbs, or condos. Recommend Bed and Breakfasts and all-inclusive resorts. Tell us about Global Volunteers, Discover Corp, Road Scholar, and National Park Service Volunteering. If you have a travel experience to share – good or bad – we want to hear about it. If you have never traveled, but think it's time, this is the event for you.

We will provide paper and pens for taking notes because we hope everyone comes away with some new ideas about where to go and what to see, along with great advice about where, when, and how to do it.

Here's our first suggestion (provided by Writer, Producer, Director Susan Heller): "When preparing to travel, lay out all your clothes and all your money. Then take half the clothes and twice the money."
