

Bake Sale on November 20 - Friends of Union County Library (FOUCL)

FOUCL Fall Bake Sale Co-Chair Sally Woodworth

FOUCL members are once again measuring, mixing, and baking up wonderful cakes, cookies, candies, and pies which will be for sale on November 20 (the Tuesday before Thanksgiving) from 10 AM until 2 PM in the Community Room of Union County Public Library, 303 Hunt Martin Street in Blairsville. We will also be offering mason jar dry mixes. Just add a few more ingredients - some just require boiling water - and have soup, a hot drink, a salad dressing or dip. This is a great place to purchase something to give as a hostess gift, to take as your contribution to the family holiday meal, or to gift to yourself - grab and eat! Stop by and check out all the deliciousness. All proceeds benefit Union County Public Library.

Everything Christmas Sale Co-Chairs Barbara Hale and Judy Baldwin did an outstanding job at our recent sale and the many FOUCL-member volunteers made it a fun event! Thank you for bringing in donations and for shopping. What a great way to support our library. Want to do still more? Keep reading.

Did you know there is an easy, FREE way you can support FOUCL every time you shop online at Amazon? With the holidays approaching, now is the perfect time to sign up. It isn't an add-on expense and you don't have to round up your purchase as you may have had to do with other organizations. Just join the AMAZON SMILE Program by going to www.smile.amazon.com, or sign up for the program as you log in. When you choose Friends of Union County Library in Blairsville, GA, Amazon will donate a percentage of most purchases to the Friends for the benefit of Union County Public Library.

Give a Hoot . . . Join Us!